Did You Know That

Verity, the Pymont goal-keeper, made a reappearance for his club on Saturday. His brilliant play had much to do with Pymont's success against Auburn.

The McKay family is well represented in Auburn's first grade teams. C. McKay, and D. McKay, the winger, play in the first eleven, whilst E. McKay plays as centre-half for the first eleven.

C. Daly, the nippy Ashford ward, played a useful game for Metropolis against Victoria. The two goals he scored were beauties.

H. Simmons, the popular main goalkeeper, was taken in becoming ill when picked to represent the State against Victoria. He also missed a trip to England.

His place was taken in the first team to tour Queensland by E. H. the Balgownie custodian, who held his good reputation against the dons of the North.

Eastern Suburbs fielded a strong ex-State League player in the first eleven on Saturday. He partnered the son on the left wing, but the rouse defence had them marked.

N.S.W. Beats Queensland.

Followers in New South Wales are delighted with the success of their representatives in the match. On Saturday the men played brilliant football, beating the doughty Queenslanders 3-2.

New South Wales team composed of: Goal, F. Smith; full-backs, Driscoll and A. Harris; half-backs, L. Bailey, J. Ireland, and W. Edwards; forwards, G. Murphy, A. O'Brien, G. Smith, J. O'Brien, and Simpson.

In the 22 minutes of delightful football, Queensland scored the first goal of the match, when Murray, Queensland right half-back, made a dropping shot which Smith, only partially save. May, an centre-forward, pounced on it after Smith handled it and May, and Edwards, three ball-controllers operating in the Queensland front line, supplied a thrill when they swept the Welshmen's defence. Smith, the Balgownie stalwart, cleared the ball clear of the goal. The N.S.W. manager resumed his composure, for it looked "cert." for a goal.

Cameron caused the Queenslanders to Traylor and Rigby, real when he raced in top gear to the Queensland goal, but Halls made a wonderful save when Alec scored one of his best right on target.

The game was played in a fine and both sets of forwards, led by half-backs well versed in the art of serving up the ball correctly, gave a fine exposition of passing, and delighted the big crowd with clever footwork and adept touches.

The Welshmen had the best of the exchanges during the last 15 minutes of the first half, but the forwards could not break through the Queensland cordon.

The sprightly Queenslanders trotted off the Brisbane Cricket Ground highly elated with their 1-0 lead at half-time.

The spell enabled the Welshmen to replenish their "gas," and so well did they "step on it" that within two minutes of the re-start they drew level with Queensland.

Cameron made progress, and then tapped the ball to burly Geo. Smith, the idol of Corrimal. Smith quickly summed up the situation, and quicker still decided that O'Brien was the right man (although on the left flank) to level the tally for New South Wales.

It must have been Ireland's field day, for after O'Brien had scored, Murphy danced an Irish jig to evade the attention of the opposing half-back, and then delivered a perfect centre to Smith, who drove the ball at lightning speed into the Queensland net.

The Welshmen now led 2-1, and Ireland, the N.S.W. centre half-back, supplemented the fine efforts of O'Brien and Murphy by "boggling in" and breaking up many nicely arranged sorties of the Queensland vanguard.

The mighty men of Queensland now darted hither and thither to find an opening in the New South Wales defence, but Driscoll and Harris offered a stalwart opposition, and the Queenslanders were checked.

Just 15 minutes of the second half had gone when New South Wales notched its third and what ultimately proved to be the winning goal. O'Brien it was who clinched the argument with a perfect shot when the ball was served up to him from the right wing.

True to tradition, the dons of Queensland made a determined attempt to snatch a victory at the last moment. Jim Driscoll thwarted a virile Queensland attack by conceding a corner. Edwards took the kick, and placed accurately for May to head the goal.

Only a goal in arrears, Queensland battled strongly for the equaliser, but the diligence of the Welshmen prevented accomplishment, and New South Wales won by 3 goals to 2.

The second test game will be played at Brisbane to-day. A thrilling game is expected.

The New South Wales team matched its strength with a Brisbane combination on Monday, and won by 4 goals to 3 after a dinging struggle.

Protestant Churches Association

SPORTS DAY.

Last Monday the Churches held a day unparalleled in the history of Junior Soccer. At a Sports Day held on Canterbury Sports Ground just on 1400 people entered the gate—some at 8 a.m. A spirit of goodwill obtained all day, and many exciting finishes were witnessed. Particularly so was this the case of 2nd and 3rd Grade finals.

INTER-BRANCH GAMES.

Singularly enough, the Inter-Branch representative teams were very evenly matched. Cook and South Sydney were successful, but only just. St. George particularly are to be congratulated on their showing.

PRESENTATION OF TROPHIES.

The trophies won last Monday will be presented in the Marrickville Masonic Hall on Thursday next at 8 p.m. Teams are advised to apply for tickets (2/- each) immediately.

CHURCH PARADE.

The Association Church Parade will be held in All Saints' to-morrow night. Players and supporters should meet outside at 7 p.m. Cook Branch will hold their next Parade in Dulwich Hill Methodist Church on July 8.

FIRST GRADE COUNCIL MEETING.

A Council meeting of first grade teams will be held at St. Barnabas' on Monday night at 8.15.

LOST.

A pair of shoes were lost at Canterbury last Saturday week. Will the finder please advise the Association?

DALLEY BRANCH.

A Council meeting will be held next Tuesday, and a dance on Saturday, July 7 (tickets, 2/- and 1/6).

Draw for Saturday, June 16.

Players Honoured.

A pleasant social function was well attended at Easts' training quarters (Langridge's), when presentations were made to English and "Jock" Comrie respectively. A number of complimentary speeches were made by the players concerned, and after the coffee, dancing was indulged in until the termination of a most enjoyable evening.

Amongst those present were a number of the Victorian team members, who greatly appreciated the invitation extended to them to be present.

At the conclusion Mr. and Mrs. Langridge were thanked for their kindness in supplying the beautiful dancing partners as well as the music and the hall.

Football Arguments.

(Q.)—In a match connected with local league during very bad weather, the referee, after inspecting the ground, which was not marked out owing to the snow, informed the two captains that as there was no penalty area there could be no penalty kicks if any fence occurred in close proximity to goal.

(A.)—The referee erred greatly. In his endeavour to avoid the postponement of the game he had no authority or ruling to eliminate the penalty rule.

It often happens in games such as this that the markings are not too plain. The only course permitted would be for the referee to inform the captains that in the event of any incident taking place within this prescribed area it would have to be left to him to use his judgment whether to award a penalty or not. By acting as he did in the case in question, the referee was making his own rules. This is not permissible.

Help the Boys.

If Soccer is to progress and new adherents in the game must be fostered in schools. A deal of work has already been done but much yet remains to be accomplished.

An appeal for funds made to assist the school game any genuine "sport" has the opportunity of adding to the fund to which the Metropolitan Association has donated. Contributions addressed to Hon. Secretary, Metropolitan Soccer Football Association, Club, Hunter Street, Sydney, will be duly acknowledged.

In connection with the dance is being held at the Royal on Monday, June 24, are available at popular prices. Gents. 2/5, ladies 1/5. The of the proceeds to the will be devoted to the
